PUBLIC NOTICE
APPOINTMENT OF FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDER
Northern District of Florida

The United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit invites applicants for the Federal Public Defender position for the Northern District of Florida stationed at Tallahassee. The Federal Public Defender serves a four-year term and may seek reappointment. The Federal Public Defender, under authority of 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(g)(2)(A), provides criminal defense services to individuals unable to afford counsel and supervises a staff of full-time attorneys and administrative and clerical personnel. A review committee will evaluate all qualified candidates in accordance with the regulations of the Judicial Conference of the United States and the Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit governing the appointment and reappointment of Federal Public Defenders.

The Court is searching for the best qualified person currently available and encourages applications from all qualified persons, including women, members of minority groups, and individuals with disabilities. All applications will be subject to the same standard of review. The current salary is $172,500. Federal public defenders may not engage in the private practice of law and are subject to judiciary financial disclosure requirements.

To qualify for appointment as a Federal Public Defender, applicants must:

- a. be members in good standing of at least one state bar or the District of Columbia or the Virgin Islands bar, and members in good standing of every other bar of which they are members;
- b. have been engaged in the active practice of criminal law for a period of at least five years, preferably with significant federal criminal trial and appellate experience;
- c. possess the ability to administer a Federal Public Defender's office effectively;
- d. possess, and have a reputation for:
 - (1) integrity and good character;

- (2) sound physical and mental health;
 - (3) commitment to equal justice under law and vigorous representation of his or her clients;
 - (4) outstanding legal ability and competence (evidenced by substantial legal experience, ability to deal with complex legal problems, aptitude for legal scholarship and writing, and familiarity with courts and court processes);
- e. have a commitment to the vigorous representation of those unable to afford counsel; and
 - f. not be related by blood or marriage to a judge of the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals or to a judge of the district court to be served, within the degrees specified in Title 28, United States Code, Section 458 at the time of the initial appointment.

Applications are available at www.ca11.uscourts.gov; from any federal Clerk of Court in the states of Alabama, Florida, and Georgia; and from the Circuit Executive, James P. Gerstenlauer, 56 Forsyth Street, NW, Atlanta, Georgia 30303. Applications must be unbound and must arrive in the Circuit Executive's Office no later than 19 January. Emailed and faxed copies of applications will not be accepted.
